

A BRAVE WOODCUTTER

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions which follow.

Once a woodcutter rescued a young prince from a burning forest.

The prince was very grateful to the woodcutter and he wanted to reward him.

The prince asked him if he wished for anything and promised to grant it.

The woodcutter thought for a long time but could not think of anything.

The prince asked the woodcutter to tell him the day he thought of a wish. Several years later, the woodcutter went to the palace and asked the prince, the woodcutter said, "My wish is for my daughter to become a princess."

The prince kept his promise and married to the woodcutter's daughter.

1. How do you know that the woodcutter was very brave?

---

2. What was the prince going to do about the woodcutter's wish?

---

3. Why did the woodcutter think for so long?

---

4. Where did the prince live?

---

5. Who was the beautiful girl who was with the woodcutter?

---

